

AUBERGINE STEAKS WITH SEARED TUNA IN MUST DRESSING

Categoria: Starter Tempo di preparazione: 70 minutes Difficoltà: medio 🇩🇪

Ingredienti per 4

- 1 round aubergine
- salt, to taste
- extra virgin olive oil, as needed
- 1 clove of garlic
- chili pepper, to taste
- mint, finely chopped, to taste
- 1/2 glass of red wine vinegar and a little more to brush the tuna
- parsley, finely chopped, to taste
- 4 tuna fillet steaks 2 cm thick

1 tablespoon of must (freshly crushed grape juice)

Must is the juice of wine grapes, before it is left to ferment into wine. It has a hint of sweetness, and adds a lovely complexity to whatever it is added to, in this case, the dressing for the aubergine and seared tuna.

Difficulty: moderate

Cost: moderate

Preparation time: 70 minutes

Serves: 4

Method

Cut the aubergine into slices about 2 cm thick. Salt them and leave to rest for 30 minutes. This will remove their bitterness. Then grill the steaks on a hot griddle on both sides for about 5-10 minutes.

Prepare a sauce stirring together the extra virgin olive oil, the clove of garlic, the chili pepper, the must, mint, ½ glass of red wine vinegar and parsley. Set aside.

Take the tuna steaks, sprinkle with salt and brush with vinegar. Grill for 4 minutes on each side, or less if you want it rare.

Slice the tuna steaks and arrange on the aubergine steaks. Dress with the sauce and serve on a hot plate. Enjoy!

