Method

Clean and cut the fennel into strips, soak them for a few minutes in water, then drain them. Clean and finely chop 1 onion, sauté in extra virgin olive oil in a frying pan. When golden, add the fennel, mix and cover with the warmed vegetable stock. Simmer until the liquid is completely consumed.

Put the mussels in a pan with water, cover them and let them cook until they open. Remove the water, shell them and toss them in the breadcrumbs. Meanwhile, prepare 2 sweet and sour onions: clean them and cut them into thin slices, put them in a pan with extra virgin olive oil, add the white wine vinegar and let it evaporate and add 1 teaspoon of sugar. Simmer for at least 10 minutes. Let them cool.

Put the fennel in single-portion moulds and place the previously prepared mussels on top. Bake in the oven for a few minutes at 180°C. Garnish with the sweet and sour onions. Enjoy!
