In-Store Promotions

The image shows a pop-up stall in a grocery store. The stall is a white table with a white sign in the center. The sign has a lowercase 'i' followed by a heart shape filled with various fruits and vegetables, and the text 'Fruit & Veg from Europe' below it. The stall is surrounded by shelves of fresh produce, including tomatoes, cucumbers, and leafy greens. A sign on the right side of the stall says 'ENJOY THE BEST OF EUROPE' with a European Union flag logo.

i Love Fruit & Veg pop-up is back! 🥬

Join us from September 9th-15th at the i Love Fruit & Veg pop-up, explore seasonal picks, discover quality labels, and dive into sustainability. The i Love Fruit & Veg from Europe campaign is led by five organisations based in Italy and is co-funded by the European Commission. Choosing seasonal fruit and veg from Italy and other EU countries, means choosing the very highest standards of freshness, quality, and respect for the environment. A diet with this produce provides a rich source of vitamins, fibre, and antioxidants.

meriahelinkahel Hard to say if you ever buy an ingredient because it looks good but have no idea what you are going to do with it 🍅🍅

Well, I couldn't resist the Venetian radicchio caciotta! @lovefruitandvegfromeuropeweb across to see, like a beautiful flower 🍅

So it literally was a salad fridge raid, beetroot, kohlrabi, gherkins, radish, carrot, pear, goats cheese, pomegranate seeds and delicious blood oranges 🍅 which are in season at the moment so make sure you get some soon and enjoy 🍅

Wow it's only a salad 🍅 @lovefruitandvegfromeuropeweb but it made me smile 😊

Let's get experimenting with delicious foods, especially those in season. Sometimes it will go well, sometimes not, but you'll have fun along the way...

Happy Friday everyone, keep smiling, it's almost the weekend 🍅 LOL M X

I Love Fruits and Vegetables from Europe wishes you all Happy Spring time and a very Happy Easter!

London, 20 March 2024 - It's springtime, and here at I Love Fruits and Veg from Europe we are full of joy. The fruits and vegetables are so fresh, light and vivacious—they will fill you with joy too.

Let's take a peek at Europe's garden: everything is so light, bright, and juicy, as reinvigorating as sunshine itself. We have glossy leaves of spinach and short, crisp green beans, tender green asparagus, the sweetest peas—they are all starting to appear now. The fruits of the orchard are small but ripening, especially the cherries, and in the not too distant future, the sweet apricots. Berries are fresh and aromatic—anyone for a springtime trifle or Eton mess?

And that elegant vegetable, the artichoke! Have you ever wondered how to prepare it? How do you get past the thorny leaves to eat the tender heart? We are here to tell you, just visit our website: www.ilovefruitsandvegfromeurope.co.uk for seasonal recipes.

Get inspired by springtime freshness: make a simple omelette of spinach and goats cheese; sprinkle springtime herbs over a leafy salad, mix chopped onions with butter and let it melt into a sizzling steak. And pasta or a risotto is delightful with spring vegetables: add a handful of each new young green vegetable, to make it 'zita primavera' as they say in Italy, like springtime itself.

Pasta with almost any of the new asparagus vegetables is delectable, changing as the garden does. And fresh herbs: young parsley, baby basil, little shoots of thyme, green garlic, tendrils of peas.
